

BUSINESS GAIN TO BE SLOW EXPERT SAYS

Industry Yet In Unbalanced Condition With Reasons To Be Hopeful

"We may expect a considerable improvement in business conditions during the year 1922. However, recovery is certain to be slow and we must not be too optimistic or expect the impossible to be accomplished," said W. F. Bushong of the Public Relations department of Swift and company, in speaking before the Rotary club here Monday.

"When business is on a normal basis prices of all commodities, of all manufactured goods and of all services rendered are on a fairly comparable basis. Today industry is still in an unbalanced condition. The wholesale prices of farm products are only 14 per cent higher than in 1913, while some manufactured goods are as much as 118 per cent higher than in 1913. It is obvious that there is considerable liquidation and many readjustments yet to take place.

"Business men must realize that the interests that they have in common are far greater than their conflicting interests. By pulling together we will get to normal business much sooner.

Good Signs

"There are many reasons for conservative optimism; our strong financial position is one. The United States is the only one of the warring nations to defeat its currency, the quantity of federal reserve bank notes in circulation today being 35 per cent less than in December, 1920. Gold reserves of the federal reserve banks which one year ago were approximately 42 per cent, are now over 72 per cent.

"Unemployment during the last year has been cut in half. At present we have not more than two and one-half million persons who are without work. In normal times between one million and one million and a half workers are idle.

World Conditions

"We must bear in mind the fact that full recovery depends, to a certain extent, upon world recovery. European conditions affect the business in this country. Agricultural products have declined more in price than any other products. Five of the first ten commodities that we export are agricultural products. European demand for these products has been declining because satisfactory credits cannot be arranged, and also because depreciated currencies mean that they must pay a premium for every dollar's worth of American products they buy. Production being normal and demand being below normal has resulted in a temporary over-supply, with the resultant decline in prices.

"We cannot expect a great change in European conditions during the coming year. In England the feeling in financial and trade circles is that the year 1922 will be better than the year 1921. The rapid advance of sterling during the last two months of the year has helped to hearten the financial community of the nation.

France and Germany

"In France conditions are not quite so favorable. While it is felt that the most acute stages of readjustment have been passed, their method of overcoming unemployment, namely, by subsidizing crippled industry, is bound sooner or later to react against the country. Consumption of products has fallen off because of the advance in the scale of prices, so that they are now faced with a nation-wide over-production, this condition being augmented by the fact that Russia and central European countries have practically withdrawn from the market.

"In Germany the outlook for 1922 is anything but favorable. Up to the present time Germany has had the advantage of relatively cheap labor because of artificially cheap rents and bread. Even the transportation and other public utilities have been kept at an artificially low price through iron regulation of the state. These methods have amounted to an indirect subsidy to German industry and have allowed German manufacturers to undersell the world in many lines. The result, however, of this mistaken policy of artificial cheapness has been the swelling of the government's paper money deficit of billions of marks. Economic laws now seem to be triumphing over these artificial influences. Germany enters 1922 with both foreign and domestic business slackening, with no prospect of new trade expansion in the immediate future and with reasonable certainty of an increase in unemployment as early spring approaches."

Auto Industry Boom

In response to a question Mr. Bushong said that he thought the present boom in the auto industry temporary and artificial.

As to the soldier bonus, he said that the cost of the war had not yet been paid, and could only be paid by heavy taxation the next 20 years or refunding of bonds, and that the bonus effect on business would be more taxation which the consumer would have to pay. He said that he did not care to express an opinion as to the outcome of the bonus controversy.

MORE NEW HOMES

Mrs. Mary Lemma and Peter Lapinski Let Contracts

Work has been started on a modern residence of the bungalow style of architecture for Mrs. Mary Lemma at 416 Elk street. The residence will have dimensions of 22x32 and will be a story and one-half over a full basement, of frame construction. It will be completed in six weeks and will then be occupied by Mrs. Lemma.

Work was started on Monday for a 10-room frame house to be built for Peter Lapinski on Washington avenue, just west of Union street. The house will be 26x38 feet in dimensions and two stories in height, with full basement, and will be modern throughout. A large stone porch will be an attractive feature. When completed in about two months this residence will be occupied by Mr. Lapinski and family.

Borski Brothers have the contracts for both the Lemma and Lapinski residences.

QUARTERLY MEETING HELD HERE SUNDAY

Central Verein Members Gather from Marshfield and Other Wood County Places

Delegates from Marshfield, Rozellville, Hewitt, Bakerville and other places in Wood county came here Sunday to attend the quarterly conference of the Central Verein.

They were guests of St. Joseph's society during the afternoon and evening, the entertainment including a supper served in St. Joseph's church basement, followed by a program of songs and addresses. Musical features were furnished by pupils of the parochial school, who gave several pleasing numbers. The principal speaker was Rev. John Kaster of New London, who was introduced by Father Ehr as a "whirlwind talker" and fully met the expectations of his hearers. Leo Fehrenbach of Marshfield, district president, also spoke briefly.

A portion of the afternoon was devoted to the transaction of business. The next meeting will be held at Bakerville, near Marshfield, some time in August.

SPEED COP IS BUSY IN JUNCTION CITY

Some Residents of Village Are Indignant Over Alleged Holdup of Tourists

The village of Junction City is in a fair way to be placed on the tourists' "blacklist" following the employment of a speed cop in the village and too rigid enforcement of rules regarding the speed of automobiles, according to local and country auto drivers and some residents of the village.

One Junction City resident writes the Journal that some of the prominent citizens of the village are indignant about what they say is a "holdup" of tourists. Tourists coming into the village, it is said, do not know where the Junction school grounds are, and as there is no sign to warn them, do not slacken their speed. The speed cop is on duty mainly in the vicinity of the school grounds, it is stated.

It is declared that a considerable number of automobilists have been brought into court and fined for going past the school house at a speed only a few miles an hour in excess of the law regarding driving past schools.

DR. CAMPBELL ATTENDS FUNERAL OF RELATIVE

Dr. C. F. Campbell spent Friday at Scandinavia, going there to attend the funeral of his recent deceased wife's mother, Mrs. Seyer Oleson, who passed away on Tuesday and was buried Friday afternoon. Mrs. Oleson, recently observed her 60th birthday anniversary. Some two or three months ago she fell and broke her hip and had since been confined to bed.

Along said that he thought the present boom in the auto industry temporary and artificial.

As to the soldier bonus, he said that the cost of the war had not yet been paid, and could only be paid by heavy taxation the next 20 years or refunding of bonds, and that the bonus effect on business would be more taxation which the consumer would have to pay. He said that he did not care to express an opinion as to the outcome of the bonus controversy.

KNEE OF HUMAN BEING IS FOUND AFLOAT IN RIVER

Gruesome Discovery at Paper Mill Furnishes Mystery Still Unsolved

(From Thursday's Daily)

With the finding of a knee-joint which from all appearances came from the leg of a human being, floating against the racks in the Wisconsin river at the Whiting-Plover paper mill at a late hour Wednesday night, authorities here are investigating what is proving a baffling mystery.

Although the piece of flesh and bone looked as though it had been brutally hacked from a human leg, it had not been officially determined at a late hour this afternoon whether it came from a human being. Authorities, however, are working on the assumption that it did. Coroner H. D. Boston took the finding in charge.

Foul Play One Angle

Whether the joint, which appeared to have been roughly hacked from the upper portion of the limb a few inches above the knee and cut off diagonally a short distance below the knee-joint, came from the body of a person who had been murdered, furnished one angle to the mystery. It was not determined whether the piece of flesh and bone came from the body of a man or a woman.

It is declared very possible that the knee-joint floated down the Wisconsin river from a distance considerably north of here, or might even have floated into the river from some tributary stream to the north. The joint apparently came down the river past Stevens Point sometime Wednesday as it was found at 11 o'clock Wednesday night by a workman employed by the Whiting-Plover company in keeping the racks clean. He is at work at that occupation during the night.

The racks, which are an arrangement similar to a nickel fence, are set down in the water to keep drift wood, leaves, fish and refuse from getting into the machinery of the mill, and are raked continually to be kept clean.

Authorities Notified

Immediately after the section of leg was found by the workman local authorities were notified and in company with Deputy Sheriff Manuel Berry and Night Chief of Police John L. Frymark, District Attorney B. J. Carpenter drove to the paper mill and brought it back to the city. It was kept at the county jail today, pending disposition of it.

When taken from the water the joint was only slightly discolored, and further investigation disclosed that it was firm and in a good condition, indicating that it had been in the water a comparatively short time, perhaps a little more than several days. The knee was swollen and large. The flesh was broken and ragged where it is cut. It is believed a saw might have been used in cutting the bones both above and below the knee.

Authorities were not willing to definitely say they believed it to be a murder case today, although they admitted that all indications pointed in that direction. The knee-joint might have been thrown into the river far to the north or into some of its tributary streams and then carried for miles by the current.

May Be Lumberman's Leg

Another angle which was given some credence was that a lumberman or some other man might have been killed in a log drive or if not killed, might have lost his leg when it became caught in a log jam. The manner in which the joint was cut from the leg failed to bear out this theory, however, as the bone was cleanly cut and no bruises were found on the flesh except where the joint had been severed at both ends.

BOWEN AT CLEVELAND

Soo Line Conductor Attending Convention as a Delegate

R. F. Bowen, Soo Line passenger conductor on the Minneapolis run, is a delegate to the Order of Railway Conductors' convention at Cleveland, Ohio, and was accompanied to that city by Mrs. Bowen. Mr. Bowen writes local friends that much work is being accomplished at the Cleveland gathering but the delegates and visitors also find time for social enjoyment, amply provided for by the people of that city.

FIRE TRUCK SPEED IN LOCAL BUSINESS DISTRICT TO BE CUT

Machine Must Not Go Faster Than 15 Miles an Hour in Busy Section Fire and Police Board Decides

The speed of the Stevens Point fire truck is not hereafter to exceed 15 miles an hour in the business district of the city, members of the fire and police commission decided at a meeting in the office of Chief of Police John S. Hofsoos on Monday evening.

The action of the board was taken as a precautionary measure, members believing that high speed of the fire truck in the more busy streets of the city constitutes a menace to life. An order was also issued by the board designating Normal avenue as the street upon which the truck is to travel when going to the south side of the city. The truck is to run on Normal avenue to Union street, down Union to Main and then on Main to Strong's avenue or Church street. If the truck goes on Strong's avenue it may not go faster than 15 miles an hour until it reaches Ellis, when it may go faster. It was believed that only a minute or more may be lost in cutting the speed of the truck in the business district, and injuries or death to someone may be prevented.

Members of the commission elected officers for the coming year, choosing S. H. Wozalla to succeed himself as president, and selecting G. L. Rogers vice-president in the place of G. W. Andrus, whose term as a commissioner expired. H. J. Week was elected secretary, the place formerly held by B. V. Martin.

Stanley Kosmoski was appointed motorcycle officer, taking him from his night beat on the south side, and appointing Leo Frymark to his place. When the summer and fall season is ended Kosmoski will return to his night beat. James W. Carey, applicant for the position of motorcycle officer, was appointed a special patrolman and relief man.

MOVE TO HIRZY RESIDENCE

Mr. and Mrs. N. Gross to Live There Until New Home is Completed

Until their new home at the corner of Normal avenue and Reserve street is completed, Mr. and Mrs. N. Gross are temporarily located in the upright portion of Ferdinand Hirzy's residence at 1025 Main street. A. C. Kingston, cashier of the Citizens National bank, recently bought the Gross property and has moved his family here from Chilton.

Drive Slow Through Village Of Plover Motorists Warned

Motorists, go slow when driving through Plover village! Recent serious automobile accidents in the vicinity of Plover have prompted the village marshal, F. E. Halladay, to clamp the lid on tight so far as further leniency granted to automobilists is concerned.

Hereafter, and beginning at once, the speed through the village will be 15 miles per hour, or slower. And remember that when passing the school house, near the turn in the concrete road on highway No. 10, you must not drive more than eight miles an hour. If you violate these speed restrictions you are likely to get "pinched."

An advertisement appearing elsewhere in today's Journal calls attention to the decision of the village marshal to enforce the law. It is claimed that automobilists have taken advantage of the leniency which has existed up to this time and have abused their privileges, with the result that there have been many accidents caused by careless driving. The Plover people intend to curb recklessness on the stretch of highway over which they have direct charge.

"Therefore look out," concludes the notice appearing over the signature of Village Marshal Halladay.

HEAVY SPEEDING FINE

Clements Piotrowski Found Guilty by Judge W. F. Owen

Clements Piotrowski, local resident, was assessed a fine of $20 and costs of $25.50 by Judge W. F. Owen in municipal court Tuesday a. m. after he had been found guilty in a trial, of having exceeded the speed limit on Strong's avenue on May 7. He was given the alternative of paying the fine and costs or going to jail for 24 days. Piotrowski said he would pay up.

He was arrested on Sunday, May 7, by Officer Stanley Kosmoski after being stopped in front of Engine House No. 2. Kosmoski claimed he drove 30 miles an hour on the street. Piotrowski drove off, and Kosmoski stopped him a second time in front of the Majestic hotel on Strong's avenue, this time claiming he had traveled 35 miles an hour between the engine house and the Majestic.

In court the next day Piotrowski pleaded not guilty. His trial was set for May 11, but on his non-appearance at that time the trial was held open.

MARSHFIELD LABORER HANGS SELF IN BARN REASON IS UNKNOWN

Two Sons and Widow Find Lifeless Body Suspended in Building at the Rear of Residence

Marshfield, May 15 (Special to the Journal)—August Schrage, 58, laborer employed by the Roddis Lumber and Veneer company here, committed suicide by hanging himself in a barn at the rear of his home some time between 9 and 12 o'clock Sunday night. The reason for the suicide is not known.

Schrage had threatened to commit suicide on several occasions a few weeks ago. He left his home at 9 o'clock Sunday evening, telling his wife that he had work to do at the Roddis plant. Mrs. Schrage retired, and awoke at 11:30 o'clock to find her husband still gone and his coat hanging in its accustomed place in the house. With two sons she went to the barn at the rear of the home, where they found Schrage's body hanging.

LOCAL GIRL IN CONTEST AT WHITEWATER NORMAL

Miss Fannie Tracy of the High school faculty and Genevieve De Baze, a commercial department student, were at Whitewater on Saturday, going there to attend the Wisconsin state commercial contest. Miss De Baze and twenty-nine other young people tried for state honors in penmanship and although the local representative did not get a first place, she acquitted herself very creditably. Wisconsin was divided into twenty districts, each having one or more competitors in the various branches, which included rapid calculation, penmanship, shorthand, senior and junior typing.

SUICIDES IN CEMETERY ON GRAVE OF HIS WIFE

Gottlieb Albrecht, a resident of Marathon county for 51 years, committed suicide Thursday afternoon in Pine Grove cemetery at Wausau when he was blown to pieces by two sticks of dynamite which he laid down upon after placing them on a lot adjoining his wife's grave and lighting the fuse. A hole 18 inches deep and three feet in diameter was formed by the blast and pieces of the body and clothing were thrown in all directions.

TOM WALLACE IS RUN OVER AT JUNCTION

Legs and One Arm Cut Off By Passenger 17 As He Jumps Off

(From Monday's Daily) Tom Wallace, outfielder with the Stevens Point baseball club, has fielded his last fly and taken his last turn at bat.

He died at St. Joseph's hospital at Marshfield at 5 o'clock this morning after his body had been ground under the wheels of Soo line passenger train No. 17 at Junction City at 3 o'clock this morning.

Wallace was returning to his home near Moon, Marathon county, from Stevens Point, having played with the local team at Wisconsin Rapids Sunday afternoon.

Limbs Cut Off

Railroad officials at the local division offices of the Soo line reported that he had jumped off No. 17 as that train was backing into the station at Junction City from the passing track west of the depot. Falling under the wheels of the train, his limbs were cut off near his body, his left arm was cut off at his wrist and his body was otherwise mangled.

Taken into the depot at Junction City he was at first believed dead. First aid was given him by a physician and Wallace was then placed on train No. 3, which took him to Marshfield and to St. Joseph's hospital in that city.

It is understood that Wallace bought a ticket to Marshfield at the local station. Whether he first planned to go on to Marshfield and then to Wausau and his home in Marathon county and then changed his mind when the train reached Junction City is not known. Wallace, 37, had passed the station and taken the siding west of the station to allow passenger No. 4 from the north and west to pass, and was returning to the station when Wallace seemingly left the train to get off.

Take Mother to Bedside

Russell Gregory, local baseball club official, was notified of the accident immediately by the Soo line officers here. With Tom Normoyle, manager of the local team, and Frank "Helmie" Groh, first baseman and a close friend of Wallace, he left in Gregory's car at 3 o'clock this morning to drive to Moon and take Wallace's mother to Marshfield to see her son, as it was understood at that time that he could not live. Inquiry at Marshfield by telephone by the Journal today could not determine whether the party of local people and Wallace's mother arrived at the hospital in time to see him alive. Wallace, it was learned, did not regain consciousness after the train had run over and mangled his body.

The remains were at a Marshfield undertaking establishment today, and although definite funeral arrangements had not been made it was believed that they would be taken to Milwaukee for burial.

Came From Milwaukee

Milwaukee is the former home of Wallace, he having come here last June from that city to play baseball with the Stevens Point club in the Wisconsin Valley league. He remained here for a month or more and then returned to Milwaukee, subsequently playing at Two Rivers, Wis. Before coming here he played in Milwaukee semi-professional baseball circles, and was also in the Lake Shore league.

With his mother he came to this section of the state last fall, and lived on a farm in Marathon county this winter. He was working on the farm this spring, and came to Stevens Point week-ends to play with the local team. He played his first game this year with Stevens Point against Mosinee May 7.

Crack Fielder

Wallace was an outfielder of considerable ability, and made many difficult catches of fly balls here last summer before he left, besides being a heavy hitter. He played a good game with Stevens Point against Wisconsin Rapids on the latter team's diamond Sunday afternoon, and made a sensational catch of a long fly in the seventh inning at the Rapids, besides making two runs and one hit.

Refused Auto Ride

Last Sunday he was taken to his home in Marathon county by Russell Gregory in his automobile, and Mr. Gregory offered to take him home by car again Sunday evening. Wallace refused, saying that it was cold and that he would just as soon go home on the train.

Plover's Road Program

The town of Plover has a road program which stamps her as a progressive community. She is willing to pay one-third of the cost to concrete the state trunk line highways in her jurisdiction. We certainly hope that her liberal offer is promptly accepted. It will be helpful to others as well as Plover. Buena Vista, Stockton, Almond, Pine Grove, Lanark, Belmont and Grant use the state highways in Plover to get into town. The city people also use them. More than half of the population of the county will benefit directly through the carrying out of the road program in Plover.

It will be wise for other towns to take the same course. Since the adoption of the state highway system there has been too great a tendency to leave it to the state to improve and care for the trunkline roads. How mistaken that policy has been may be seen in the effect on the great route from Stevens Point, through Jordan and Polonia to the northeastern forests and lakes. Sixty-six can be traveled conveniently today only with an airplane. Regardless of the state, it may be wise for the towns of Hull and Sharon and the city to club together and see what they can do toward improvement of Road 66. We were told by a county official yesterday that the proper time to talk about the Jordan road was during meetings of the county board. We did talk about it then, without result. We think the right time to discuss that road is all the time until it is taken care of, and we are encouraged by the growing sentiment in county road circles, as a result of the agitation, in favor of doing something with the Jordan road in 1923. It is said that the county board will order concrete on it at the meeting this fall. We certainly hope so, and also hope that the city and rural towns may get together on a proposition before that time so that the matter may come before the board in a way to compel attention.

Gymnasium in the High School
The new plan for the High school provides for a gym, as it should. The theory that a gymnasium is unnecessary has been abandoned by most everyone, we presume. A gym is in line with modern educational ideas which cultivate the physical as well as the mental in the student.

We do not believe that we as yet go far enough. School sports are valuable only in arousing school spirit. The physical benefits go to few. Physical training in the schools should reach everybody. A gymnasium is a part of the equipment to provide this necessary training, not so essential a part as good instruction, yet valuable and not to be omitted when it is possible to have it.

The Gasoline Extortion

Gasoline producers have combined to increase the price of gasoline four or five cents beyond the increases already made. At the same time production is increasing. Apparently the oil companies intend to increase their profits at both ends.

It is time to determine whether the public has any protection against such extortion. It means an additional burden on Wisconsin gasoline consumers of $20,000,000 or more annually. The additional profits in the whole country run far into the hundreds of millions. Congress is investigating, yet more than investigation is called for. What is wanted is action. It appears to be a case for prompt action on the part of the department of Justice of the federal government.

The Yellowstone Trail

A delegation representing the Yellowstone Trail is to be in Stevens Point tonight, and it should have a hearty reception. The Trail is Stevens Point's most important road. Through Wisconsin it runs on Road 15 from the Illinois line to its intersection with Road 18, then on 18 to its intersection with 12, then on 12 to its intersection with 16, on 16 to Road 12 and finally on Road 12 to the Minnesota state line near the Twin Cities. It is the natural route across Wisconsin for those who desire to go via Milwaukee and the Fox River valley.

The Yellowstone Trail is known in other states. It has a name almost across the country. While our own people know their own numbered highways best, tourists from outside Wisconsin are more familiar with the sign of the Yellowstone trail and they follow it where they do not know anything of the state signs. By all means the Trail should be maintained. It emphasizes what the state marking serves to confuse—that there is a single route from Chicago and Milwaukee to the Twin Cities. It is really one road in spite of the several state numbers put on it. The Trail brings thousands of state tourists to the cities along the line. We ought to help it in every way possible.

Needed, a County Motorcycle Officer

Danger on rural highways in this county is increasing, due not so much to a greater number of cars being in use or to inexperience of drivers as, we believe, to moonshine driving. More moonshine is manifesting its effects on the county roads than ever before. The situation grows serious to the peaceful and law-abiding.

We believe that the man who takes his family out for a quiet drive on the roads of this county is entitled to protection against the drunken young fellows who dash up and down the highways without thought of the safety of others.

In the city conditions are not so bad because officers on the streets have a tendency to impress the reckless. On the country roads a motorcycle officer enforcing the law against those who recklessly endanger the lives of others would be a good investment, and that such an officer be employed is suggested to the district attorney and sheriff who have the matter in charge. A county cop could work at points on the roads of which there is complaint. A few arrests with stiff fines or prison sentences should put a stop to drunken driving before lives are lost.

DR. COWAN ELECTED ASSOCIATION HEAD

Local Physician Succeeds V. A. Mason of Marshfield As President

Dr. Wayne F. Cowan of Stevens Point was elected president of the Ninth Councillor District Medical society at its annual meeting, held here Wednesday afternoon and evening. Dr. Joseph F. Smith of Wausau was re-elected secretary and treasurer. Dr. Cowan succeeds Dr. V. A. Mason of Marshfield as president.

Fifty physicians from all sections of the central part of Wisconsin, including men from Waupaca, Wisconsin Rapids, Marshfield, Wausau, and other cities and villages near here were in attendance. Good roads and weather made possible the large attendance.

The session was taken up largely with clinical work of particular interest to the attending doctors. Dr. W. C. Hopkins of Chicago, chief surgeon of the Chicago and Northwestern railroad, was the principal speaker on the program. He gave two talks, one in the afternoon and another in the evening, both of which were illustrated by slides.

Cities in which the next three meetings of the association are to be held were chosen Wednesday. The July meeting will be held in Waupaca, the September meeting in Marshfield, and the November gathering in Wausau. The annual, or spring meeting, is always held in Stevens Point.

ASSESS $300 DAMAGES

Court Directs Verdict Favorable to One Defendant

A verdict granting the plaintiff $300 damages against one of the defendants was returned by a circuit court jury last week in the case of John Nornberg vs. Joe Roszek and John Covelowski. Nornberg sued for $2,500.

The action was instituted as the result of an auto accident near the Matt Lepinski store in the town of Sharon. Nornberg alleged in his complaint that a car driven by Roszek struck him while he was off the traveled road, causing him a broken leg, and confinement for some time as the result of the injuries. Covelowski was claimed to have been the owner of the car.

The court directed a verdict in the case favorable to Covelowski, absolving him from damages, as it was not proved that Covelowski owned the car driven by Roszek.

The jury in this case was Elizabeth N. Juby, Julia Kubisiak, Carl Swenson, Jerome B. J. James, Kotas, Nick, Broz, Irene E. Felix, Jukka, Elizabeth, and Mrs. Adolph Syversen, Frank Olen and Mrs. Cook have been chosen for the following:

OBITUARY

Mrs. Edward Erickson

Just a month after the death of her husband, Mrs. Edward Erickson passed away at 9 o'clock Monday evening at her home, 527 Main street. Mrs. Erickson was stricken last Saturday evening with hemorrhage of the brain, following a period of high blood pressure, and nothing could be done to prolong her life. Her illness was undoubtedly brought on by the almost unremitting care she gave her recently deceased husband, whose sickness extended over a period of several months. The family came to Stevens Point from Wittenberg last September and have since occupied the Main street home.

Mrs. Erickson before her marriage was Martha Nelson, a native of Arendahl, Norway, born there 62 years ago. She was married in Sheboygan, Wis. to Mr. Erickson about 1882 and a few years later the family moved to a farm near Wittenberg.

Mrs. Erickson is survived by eight daughters and sons, Mrs. N. M. Nelson of Manitowish, Mrs. Otto Kann of Oshkosh, Mrs. Axel Nelsen of Brooklyn, N. Y., Mrs. O. A. Anderson of Leona, Beatrice of Chippewa Falls, Florence, Ben and William at home. There are also seven stepchildren, some of whom live in the far west. An only sister, Helen Nelson, is in Norway.

Funeral services conducted by Rev. James Blake, will be held at the Erickson home Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock and interment will follow in Forest cemetery.

Heart Trouble Causes Death

Mrs. Ludwika Komasa, widow of the late Andrew Komasa and a pioneer of this city, passed away at her home, 1101 North Second street, at 8:15 o'clock Wednesday morning and was buried from St. Peter's church at 8 a. m. on Friday, with interment in the parish cemetery.

Mrs. Komasa had been poorly for a long time, suffering with valvular heart trouble, but she was confined to her bed only two weeks. She was a native of German Poland, born there 71 years ago. The family comprises four sons and two daughters, Joseph, Ladislau, Frank and Thomas Komasa, Mrs. John Trzedy and Mrs. Jos. Powloski, all of this city. There are also three brothers and a sister, Albert and John Kazmarek of Stevens Point, Joseph Kazmarek and Mrs. Agnes Skoczinski of Toledo, Ohio.

Mrs. James Schlice

A death under peculiarly said and heartrending circumstances was that of Mrs. James Schlice, which occurred at her home, 811 Ellis street, at 5 o'clock Thursday morning.

At about the middle of Tuesday afternoon, while alone in the house, she suffered a stroke of paralysis and was found lying on the floor by her little daughter, Dorothy, when the latter returned from school. Aid was summoned but efforts to restore the stricken one to consciousness proved unavailing.

Mrs. Schlice devoted most of Tuesday morning to ironing and other household work and was in apparent good health. Mr. Schlice stopped at the home for a moment early in the afternoon when his wife was arranging her toilet in preparation for attending an entertainment given by children of the Garfield school. At this time she casually mentioned that there was a slight numbness in one of her hands, but little or nothing was thought of it at the time. It is evident that the fatal stroke came shortly after this time.

The maiden name of Mrs. Schlice was Barbara Jedlicka and her birthplace was New Prague, Minn., 33 years ago the 27th of last November. Twelve years ago, at Pine City, Minn., Miss Jedlicka was wedded to James Schlice and they made that village their home for the following couple of years. The family then moved to Stevens Point, where Mr. Schlice is associated with the Boston company in its undertaking department.

Mr. and Mrs. Schlice have five children, Margaret, Robert, Dorothy, Donald and Willard, ranging in age from eleven years to one year and four months. Other near relatives of the deceased are a sister and two brothers, Mrs. John Houdek and Albert Jedlicka of Pine City and Edward of Medford, Minn. Mrs. Houdek arrived here Wednesday and Albert came this afternoon.

Mrs. H. H. Young Called

Long and patient suffering was ended for Mrs. H. H. Young a few minutes before 4 o'clock Thursday morning when she passed away at her home on Jefferson street.

Mrs. Young had been in poor health for several years but her illness did not take on a serious turn until last December 24, when the gradually developing heart and kidney trouble became more pronounced and for a period of four months she was unable to lie down. Although in intense pain much of the time, she bore her affliction with almost heroic resignation.

Doris St. John was born near Oshkosh 73 years ago the 1st of last December, living at the farm home until her marriage to Mr. Young a half century ago on the 2nd of last July. They came to Stevens Point in 1887 and all except one year of their lives Mr. and Mrs. Young occupied the home at 218 Jefferson street. The widow survives. Although of an exceptionally home loving disposition Mrs. Young found time to form many friends and every one of them will deeply regret to learn of her death.

Mr. and Mrs. M. C. St. John of Chicago, Mrs. C. F. Merrill of Milwaukee, Mrs. V. O. Zimmerman of Sterling, Ill., and John Kachur of N. Fond du Lac, nephew and nieces of the deceased, are now in the city.

Rev. K. A. Barnes of St. Paul's M. E. church will offer prayers at the Young home Saturday morning at 9:30 o'clock, the remains being placed aboard 800 train No. 6 at 10:30 and taken to Oshkosh. Further services will be conducted there and the remains laid to rest that afternoon.

Hastings McGill Dies

Hastings McGill, a Civil war veteran and one of the pioneer residents of McDill, died at Lena, Oconto county, on Thursday and the body was shipped here for interment.

Mrs. McGill's wife died three years ago, since which time he had lived with a daughter, Mrs. Arnold Herman at Lena, and another daughter, Mrs. Rudolph Schwartz at Escanaba, Mich. The only other remaining member of the family is Mrs. Harvey Willard of this city, a daughter. Mrs. Willard was with her father during his illness and will accompany the remains here. Mr. McGill was about 78 years of age.

The body arrived over the Green Bay & Western road Saturday afternoon and the funeral was held from St. Paul's Methodist church on Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock. Rev. R. A. Barnes officiated, burial taking place in the McDill cemetery.

Ole Larson Passes Away

Rosholt Review: Ole Larson passed away at the home of his niece, Mrs. Peter Brekke, Wednesday morning at 8:15, at the age of 77 years. He has been making his home with the Brekke family for the past several years.

Mr. Larson was born in Norway in 1845, and came to this country with his parents when seven years of age. He was one of the early settlers of Stevens Point, where he lived until 20 years ago, when he moved to Rhineland, and later to Tomahawk. The greater part of his life he has been employed by the railroad, as car inspector.

Mr. Larson was the last of a family of eight children to pass from this life. He is survived by his wife, and one daughter, Mrs. Manda Cuff, both of whom reside at Stevens Point.

Mrs. Komasa Buried

Funeral services for the late Mrs. Andrew Komasa were conducted by Rev. Victor Hoppa at St. Peter's church at 8 o'clock Friday morning who also offered prayers when the remains were consigned to their final resting place in the parish cemetery. ### Mrs. Schlice at Rest

The funeral of Mrs. James Schlice, whose sad death at her home on Ellis street occurred early in the week, took place from St. Stephen's church on Saturday morning. Rev. James C. Hogan officiating, and interment followed in the parish cemetery. Many friends attended the last sad rites, including the following who drove up from Almond: Mr. and Mrs. Pat Bowen, Mr. and Mrs. Wendel Mathie and Mrs. Van Gunten. Relatives who came here from a distance included Mrs. John Houdek and daughter, Mamie and Albert Jedlicka of Pine City, Minn., Mrs. Wm. Smith of Chicago, Mr. and Mrs. John Schlice of Mosinee.

Pallbearers were Simon Roseth, W. J. Boston, Ben Schlice, P. Bowen, Ted Ceplina and Geo. Schaffner.

Mrs. Caroline A. Bellinger

Mrs. Caroline A. Bellinger, a former resident of Stevens Point, died at Fort Thomson, Chamberlain, S. D., Monday morning, according to a telegram received that afternoon.

Mrs. Bellinger's death was entirely unexpected by relatives residing in this city. Although she had been troubled at times with gait and heart trouble, she had not been known to be otherwise than in her usual health. For the past 15 years she had been matron of a federal government school for Indians on a reservation near Gross, S. D. It is presumed she died in the hospital at Fort Thomson, which is on the reservation.

Mrs. Bellinger's maiden name was Caroline A. Sances and she was born in Stevens Point 60 years ago. In young womanhood she was married to Louis Pfeiffer of this city, who died about 32 years ago. She was married about 15 years ago to James H. Bellinger, also a former Stevens Point resident. Mr. Bellinger died on January 31, 1910, at Bessie, N. Dak., where she lived on a homestead. Since going west Mrs. Bellinger had visited in Stevens Point almost every summer.

The deceased is survived by two sons, Louis and Albert Pfeiffer of Wauwatosa, Wis.; four step-sons, Walter D. Bellinger of this city, Marvin Bellinger of Maple, Wis., and Clarence Bellinger of Chicago, and three sisters, Mrs. Herbert Hays of this city, Mrs. Theodore Butler of Wausau and Mrs. F. A. Deen of Brown, S. Dak.

Buried at Oshkosh

Mrs. H. H. Young, the esteemed Stevens Point woman whose death occurred here last week, is now at rest in beautiful Riverside cemetery, Oshkosh, where the remains were taken on 800 train No. 6 at 10:30 o'clock Saturday morning, following prayers offered at her late home by Rev. R. A. Barnes. Before the body was consigned to earth, other services were conducted by Rev. E. H. Smith, venerable pastor at Oshkosh. Those who went from here included Mr. Young, Mr. and Mrs. M. S. St. John of Chicago, Mrs. C. F. Merrill of Milwaukee, John Kachur of North Fond du Lac and Mrs. V. O. Zimmerman of Sterling, Ill., the latter five being nieces and nephews of the deceased.

Funeral Here Sunday

The remains of Hastings McGill, pioneer resident of McDill, arrived here on Saturday from Lena, Oconto county, and funeral services were held at St. Paul's M. E. church Sunday afternoon, Rev. R. A. Barnes officiating. The cortege was then driven to McDill, where interment followed beside his wife, who passed away five years ago. Those who accompanied the body here were Mrs. Harvey Willard of this city, Mrs. Rudolph Schwartz of Escanaba, Mich., Mrs. Arnold Herman of Lena, all daughters of the deceased and Mr. Herman. William Scott of West Bend, a nephew, also came for the funeral.

Before the remains were taken via automobile to Oconto and placed aboard a train there, prayers were offered at the Herman home by the local Methodist pastor. Soldiers of the Civil and later wars did honor to the deceased veteran by acting as escort on the overland journey of twelve miles to Oconto.

The church services here on Sunday were impressive, including comforting words spoken by Rev. Mr. Barnes and the rendering of hymns by Prof. W. A. Clark, Prof. H. R. Steiner, Misses Irene Scribner and Ann Benson. Those serving as pallbearers: Ralph Gee, Earl Hagen, Arthur Ross, Henry Booth, Alvin Mellentine and Leon Minnis.

Mr. Gill was born in Canada 79 years ago while his parents were on a visit across the border. ## THREE LOCAL CHURCHES TO HOLD DAILY BIBLE SCHOOL THIS SUMMER

Definite Steps to that End Taken at Union Meeting on Child Questions on Wednesday

Definite steps have been taken in Stevens Point toward the establishment of a vacation daily Bible school coming year. A committee composed of the pastors of the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian churches of the city and which will also have two persons from each congregation as members has been appointed, and work has already been started.

The appointment of the committee, of which Rev. K. A. Barnes is chairman, and which includes Rev. C. S. Pier of the Presbyterian church and Rev. James Blake of the Baptist church, the laymen not having been appointed, was made at the community meeting held at St. Paul's M. E. church Wednesday evening.

The attendance at the meeting was fairly large and was representative of the three churches which united in the gathering. Child welfare and the fostering of all that is best for children was the matter for discussion.

Prof. J. V. Collins of the Normal school spoke on the forces which tend to lift up the characters and ideals of the child, and those forces which have the opposite tendency, that of pulling him down. His address was followed by talks by the superintendents of the Sunday schools of the three churches, Prof. T. A. Rogers, Mrs. O. W. Neale and Prof. V. E. Thompson. All three went into detail on the question of whether the Sunday school is sufficient in the training of child, and all agreed that the Sunday school did not adequately perform its duty. The remedy, it was agreed, is the Union Vacation Bible school.

Rev. Mr. Pier of the Presbyterian church and Rev. Mr. Barnes of St. Paul's M. E. church then discussed the daily vacation Bible school thoroughly, following which the definite action to form such a school here this summer, to last about two weeks, and to continue from 9 to 12 each morning, was taken. Work in the vacation school will be made as attractive as possible. Study will be mainly in the form of dramatization of sections of the Bible, and in the giving of pageants illustrating Bible stories.

Short discussions were also held on the question of enforcing the laws regarding the keeping of minors from pool halls, and the matter of educational and better moving pictures.

It was decided to hold a union meeting on the first Sunday of each month to take up matters of general uplift that are brought before the union body.

VERDICT FOR PLAINTIFF

Jury Decides in His Favor on Three Counts

A verdict favorable to the plaintiff was returned by a jury in circuit court Wednesday afternoon in the action of Louis K. Depa against John F. Rozner for a judgment of $813.32.

Because the defendant admitted debts but contested the action on the ground that the statute of limitations outlawed them, three counts were given to the jury for decision to determine whether the loan had extended over a period which terminated less than six years ago. In the special verdict of the jury it was decided by the panel that a loan had been made as late as 1920.

The jury hearing the case was composed of Will Howe, Edith J. Baker, Charles Swenson, James Kotas, Julia Kubisiak, Frank Raasch, Pearl A. Clements, Frank Klein, Jr., Peter Nowicki, Joseph Sweetalla, Oscar Skoglund and Joseph F. Prondzinski.

FARMERS DEFENDANTS IN COURT CASE HERE

Rockford, Ill., Corporation Suing 10 Residents of the Town of Pine Grove (From Monday's Daily).

An action for $1,000 against ten Portage county farmers living in the town of Pine Grove, on trial in circuit court before Judge Byron B. Park Monday and this morning, was scheduled to go to the jury at 3 o'clock this afternoon.

The action was brought by the Emerson-Brantingham company of Rockford, Ill., a corporation manufacturing farm equipment. The ten defendants are C. W. Bender, A. W. Pratt, W. A. Hansen, W. E. Valentine, Harry Ellis, August Duberken, J. W. Valentine, James McIdagha, William Zetelmeier and Frank J. Pratt.

The jury hearing the case is composed of the following persons: Pearl A. Clements, Irene Een, Nick Britz, Frank Rausch, Adolph Syverson, Frances Prodzinski, Charles Swenson, Gustave Olson, Frank Klein Jr., Elizabeth Coulthurst, Julia Kubisiak and Peter Nowicki.

The Rockford company claims that it sold the ten Portage county men a threshor in the summer of 1921, and that the defendants promised to give two notes, each for $500, in payment, one due October 1, 1921, and the other due October 1, 1922, both bearing interest of eight per cent. The implement company claims that the defendants failed to deliver the notes in payment for the threshing machine, and asks a judgment of $1,000, together with interest from July 30, 1921 and the costs and disbursements of their action.

According to the defendants, they were told that the machine could be operated by a tractor which was owned by W. A. Hansen, one of the defendants. The defendants claim that it never ran as it was supposed to have run when attached to the tractor, and for that reason they refused to accept it. A representative of the company was sent to Bancroft to attempt to make it operate properly, the defendants claim, but he failed to do so, according to their answer to the complaint.

The county farmers ask a dismissal of the complaint and have entered a counter claim for a judgment of $225.87, for money they said was spent by them in attempting to operate the machine successfully, after it had been, so they claim, fraudulently and falsely represented.

Mr. and Mrs. Max Krembs, 314 Water street, will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary on Saturday of this week. Plans are being made to entertain 50 relatives at a dinner, and in the afternoon and evening there will be open house, when all friends of the couple are cordially invited to call.

Mr. and Mrs. Krembs are pioneer residents of Stevens Point and have resided in their present home for 49 years, or since a year after they were married. Both are in good health and Mr. Krembs is still employed at his trade of tinsmith with the Krembs Hardware company.

An event of unusual interest in connection with the golden wedding anniversary observance will be the presence at the Krembs home on Saturday of both the bridesmaid and groomsman of the couple. They are Mrs. John Gebhardt of Wausau, a sister of Mr. Krembs, and George Dana of Fond du Lac.

The jury hearing the case is composed of the following persons: Pearl A. Clements, Irene Een, Nick Britz, Frank Rausch, Adolph Syverson, Frances Prodzinski, Charles Swenson, Gustave Olson, Frank Klein Jr., Elizabeth Coulthurst, Julia Kubisiak and Peter Nowicki.

The Rockford company claims that it sold the ten Portage county men a threshor in the summer of 1921, and that the defendants promised to give two notes, each for $500, in payment, one due October 1, 1921, and the other due October 1, 1922, both bearing interest of eight per cent. The implement company claims that the defendants failed to deliver the notes in payment for the threshing machine, and asks a judgment of $1,000, together with interest from July 30, 1921 and the costs and disbursements of their action.

According to the defendants, they were told that the machine could be operated by a tractor which was owned by W. A. Hansen, one of the defendants. The defendants claim that it never ran as it was supposed to have run when attached to the tractor, and for that reason they refused to accept it. A representative of the company was sent to Bancroft to attempt to make it operate properly, the defendants claim, but he failed to do so, according to their answer to the complaint.

The county farmers ask a dismissal of the complaint and have entered a counter claim for a judgment of $225.87, for money they said was spent by them in attempting to operate the machine successfully, after it had been, so they claim, fraudulently and falsely represented.

MANY PEOPLE ATTEND CORNERSTONE LAYING

Music and Addresses Feature Moose Ceremony Here on Sunday Afternoon

A crowd of several hundred people gathered around the new Moose Home at Strong's avenue and Park street Sunday afternoon to witness the laying of the corner stone and listen to the accompanying program, which included several selections by Weber's band.

Promptly at 1:30 o'clock, amid ideal weather conditions, the band gave its first number, followed by a prayer offered by the Moose chaplain, M. J. Merach. Laying of the stone block at the northeast corner of the new structure was then entrusted to Geo. N. Ward of Moschoeart, Ill., past supreme dictator of this organization, who came to Stevens Point especially for the occasion. In a copper box which was enclosed within the stone were placed coins of various denominations, copies of the Mooseheart magazine and local papers, small articles contributed by individual members, a list of local lodge members and the names of all officers who have served Lodge No. 1572 since its organization.

The first speaker of the afternoon was Mayor J. N. Welsby, who acquitted himself well in a twenty minute talk, in the course of which he left many worth-while thoughts among his hearers.

W. E. Atwell and Judge Byron B. Park also addressed the large gathering and the closing speaker was Mr. Ward, who gave a history of the Local Order of Moose and related a few notable achievements since its organization fourteen years ago. The greatest accomplishment, of course, is the erection and maintenance of a home for orphan children at Moschoeart, Ill., where hundreds of boys and girls are transformed into useful men and women. Many trades and professions are taught there and every care and attention is given to the moral and physical wellbeing of the Moose wards. The supreme officer's interesting and instructive address concluded the formal exercises.

As has been noted in previous issues of this paper, the local Moose order will erect a two story building on the Strong's avenue corner, its lodge hall and several business places to occupy the first floor, with the upper part made into a big hall for dancing and other public gatherings. Bowling alleys and other forms of amusement may be installed in the basement. Fast work is being done on the structure and its completion may be looked for by early fall.

Mr. and Mrs. Bartel Johnson drove over from Amherst this morning and devoted several hours to business and visiting.

Edward Lowth, former postmaster at Wisconsin Veterans' Home, was a business visitor to this city today and found time to greet some of his local friends. Mr. Lowth devotes a portion of his time to the securing of pension increases for people at the Home and attending to other legal matters.

Jerome Spredd, clerk at Hotel Bell-His, Wausau, spent part of today with his parents and other local relatives.

Mrs. W. E. West has returned from a visit with her daughter, Mrs. H. L. Playman at Appleton.

Misses Marie and Mona Formella will leave for Aberdeen, Wash., tonight to spend the summer with their mother.

FORMER LOCAL WOMAN EXPIRES IN NEW YORK

Cancer Fatal to Mrs. John Livingston, Widow of Late Normal Instructor

A message received here Monday by Prof. and Mrs. G. E. Culver announced the death in New York City of Mrs. John W. Livingston, formerly of this city and the widow of Professor Livingston, who for a number of years was a member of the State Normal faculty here.

Her death occurred at the home of a son, Dr. Edward Livingston, where she had been residing this year. The end came after a long illness with cancer. Funeral arrangements and the place of burial were not learned here.

The Livingstons formerly lived in what is now the P. J. Jacobs home on Pine street, leaving this city about 20 years ago after a residence of eight or ten years. Professor Livingston was at the head of the Normal training department and was also an institute conductor. He later became president of the Plattville State Normal and the family afterwards went west, his death occurring at Forest Grove, Ore., about seven or eight years ago.

There survive four sons and one daughter. They are Curtis Livingston of Chicago, Dr. William Livingston of Portland, Dr. Edward Livingston, Kingsley and Miss Lois, all of New York. Mrs. Livingston was upwards of 60 years of age.

MANY ARE HURT IN TWO CRASHES ON PLOVER ROAD

One In Hospital, Others Are Injured and Four Automobiles Damaged (From Monday's Daily)

The climax to a steadily increasing list of early season automobile accidents was reached over the week-end when two collisions, the second one at the scene of the first, occurred a few hours apart, resulting in injuries to five men and women, completely wrecking one car and damaging three others.

The four mile post on highway No. 10 near Springville was the scene of the night's collisions. What remained of a Ford touring car which turned turtle at that spot at 9 o'clock Saturday evening was reduced to junk when another machine, traveling at high speed, crashed into it on the side of the road early Sunday morning.

GYM INCLUDED IN NEW PLANS FOR BUILDING

Big Saving Expected in Semi-Fireproof School Facing East Avenue

New sketches for the first unit of a new high school building, to include both an auditorium and a gymnasium as well as class rooms, were authorized prepared by the joint building committee of the council and school board Wednesday night.

The architect, Robert A. Messmer of Milwaukee, was present and conferred with the committee members at the council rooms immediately after the close of the May board of education meeting, which was also held there.

While the new plans include practically all of the main features originally decided upon, it is believed that a saving of thousands of dollars can now be effected in view of changes in construction. A two story semi-fireproof unit is now proposed instead of a three story fireproof building.

To Face East Avenue

The most striking change endorsed on Wednesday evening is a plan to build the new unit to the west instead of to the east of the present high school and to have the main entrance face west on East avenue instead of north on Clark street, as would have been the case had an east wing been built. While this was found necessary in view of the dimensions of the proposed new unit and subsequent extensions to be added at some future time, it is believed that the plan will prove fully as desirable as the former one. No opposition to facing the building west is looked for and the joint committee is going ahead with its new plans with this change agreed upon.

Mr. Messmer had prepared two other sets of sketches but neither was considered when the plans outlined above were hit upon after his arrival here and after he had carefully gone over the site on the high school campus block. The building committee will make every effort to hasten the completion of the new plans and specifications so that bids can again be called for in the near future with a view toward awarding contracts early enough to have the building finished by fall.

Class Rooms in Wing

The gymnasium and auditorium as now decided upon will face directly to the west on East avenue, coming up to within 20 feet of the west line of the high school block. These two features will represent a building height of approximately three stories, and will be located in the center of the proposed unit. On each side of this center construction will be erected the remainder of the unit in such a manner as to extend east in the form of wings, eventually enclosing the present building on both the north and the south. When the time comes to remove the old building a light court will have been provided in the center.

Mr. Messmer explained that under this arrangement it will be possible to erect a unit of semi-fireproof construction, although a unit wholly fireproof would have been necessary had original plans been carried out, which provided for a three story unit to the east of the present high school. This is governed by the state building code, the material used in the construction depending upon the nature and height of the construction.

Look For Big Saving

The semi-fireproof feature is expected to result in a substantial reduction in contract figures when bids are received, it was explained. The size of the auditorium will in all probability remain the same as originally planned, with a seating capacity of 1,000. Concerning the gymnasium which will go below the auditorium, provision will be made at this time for the enclosure, which will include the foundation and walls, even though it cannot be completely finished inside at once. With this provided for, the board of education feels that the gymnasium problem will be solved as interior work and equipment can be taken care of later.

The architect explained that there is much more elasticity to the new plans than to the old in view of the wing features which will extend the wings toward the east on each side of the auditorium-gymnasium center. Building of extensions on the wings can be cut off at almost any place if not enough money is available to continue the work, he said, and at a later time additions can be made without expenditure of big sums of money. It is hoped, however, that enough classrooms can be provided right at the start to fully take care of the high school housing problem.

More Space on West

In deciding to face the new unit to the west, and to build it on the west side of the present school instead of on the east side, the building committee was governed by the dimensions of the property and the location of the present structure. It was found impossible to carry out the new plans and face the new unit north, building it directly in front of the Clark street side of the present building, as not enough ground space is available there. The distance from the high school to Clark street is only 64 feet while there is a space of 190 feet from its west end to East avenue.

There are also 100 feet on the south end of the property, showing that the high school was not erected in the center of the block. The plan of building the new unit on the south, facing Ellis street, was not considered as it would face the building in an opposite direction from the main part of town and the downtown section, it was pointed out. For the same reason an east unit would not be desirable, as the main entrance would then face east.

The new plans will further provide for an open corridor between the new unit and the old high school, the corridor serving to connect the two structures.

All Want the Gym

When the question of eliminating the gymnasium was raised there was no one on either the board or the joint committee who expressed himself in favor of leaving this feature out. In fact all went on record for it, believing that it should be included. Attention was called to the strong public sentiment which had been expressed in favor of the gym, as indicated by numerous articles published in the Journal regarding action taken by parent teacher organizations endorsing the feature.

No Vocational Quarters

The new plans and specifications will make no provision for housing the Stevens Point Vocational school, which it was hoped at one time to take care of in the new unit. Board of education and joint committee members informally declared on Wednesday evening that a plan was now being considered to convert the Commercial building on Main street into a Vocational school after that building is vacated by High school students. This plan would be the most economical one for taking care of the Vocational school, members said. The Commercial building is owned by the city which purchased it to relieve crowded conditions in the High school.

FIND "NO CAUSE" IN DAMAGE ACTION

Jury Returns Verdict Against Claims Of Both Plaintiff And Defendant

A jury in circuit court before Judge Byron B. Park on Thursday returned a verdict finding "no cause" in both the plaintiff's claim for damages and the defendant's counter-claim for dismissal of the action and a judgment of $261.40.

The action was brought by J. B. Sullivan of Stevens Point against Henry Lutz of Plover for a judgment of $380 for damages which Mr. Sullivan claims was done his car in a collision at Springville on November 10, 1921. The plaintiff alleged that the collision of his car and that of Lutz was caused by the negligent driving of the defendant. Lutz entered a counter-claim asking dismissal of the complaint and damages of $261.40, which he said was caused his car by the negligent driving of Sullivan. The jury retired at 5 o'clock and returned with its verdict finding no cause in the action of Mr. Sullivan against Lutz, and no cause in the counter-claim of Lutz against Sullivan.

The jury: Frances Prodzinski, Dell King, Frank Raasch, Frank Karch, Elizabeth Newby, Gustave Olson, Nels Hanson, Peter Nowicki, Julia Kublislak, Joseph Sweetall, James Kotas and Oscar Skoglund.

SHARON MAN FINED FOR NETTING FISH

Warden Hornberg Confiscates Net and Bag Containing Catch

Joe Wierszba, Sharon, was fined $50 and costs when he pleaded guilty in Justice G. L. Park's court Friday morning to a charge of netting fish in Kranski lake in Sharon.

Wierszba was arrested Thursday night at 11 o'clock by Warden Frank Hornberg. Mr. Hornberg confiscated his rowboat, and arrests are said to be pending in the case of three other men who are alleged to have been implicated in the netting, assisting Wierszba at the time Hornberg appeared on the scene.

A 50-foot trammel net and a bag of fish, suckers, black bass, crappies and perch, were taken by the officer. Wierszba was brought to the county jail late the same night.

RENOVATING DWELLING

Improvements Under Way at Matt Printz Home on Normal Avenue

The outward appearance of Matt Printz' home at 421 Normal avenue is being radically changed by facing the structure several feet, excavating for a full basement and laying a stone foundation. Costs of about $10,000 will be applied to the outside and much more done on the interior. Water and sewer connections are being made and it is planned to install furnace heat.

WEEK MILL TO OPEN MONDAY MORNING EMPLOYING 50 MEN

Timber Cut Made in Marathon County and Sunken and Lost Logs are to be Reclaimed Along Two Streams

The John Week Lumber company started up its saw mill here for the season on Monday morning, employing about 50 men, largely old employees. A cut of about five million feet of logs, including new timber and old logs left over from last season, will be made.

Logging activities of the Week company were largely confined during the past winter to a track of green timber in Marathon county eight miles west of Mosinee on the Big Eau Plover river. During the summer months work of reclaiming sunken and lost logs in that stream and in the Wisconsin river in the vicinity of the old Stevens Point boom will be undertaken. Logs have been disappearing for many years and some are in river bottoms and along sloughs.

The lumber business, although picking up much later this spring than in other years, is now steady and the demand good. Prices are firm and market demands much improved. There is no prospect of price reductions this season.

Molski was riding to Wisconsin Rapids with B. M. Anderson of Oshkosh, a salesman, to secure a position in a Wisconsin Rapids mill. He could not tell what caused the accident, when he was seen by a reporter at the hospital today.

The car, a roadster, turned over on the road, and he was pinned underneath. He crawled from beneath the tonneau after the machine turned over, and was brought to the hospital here. His injuries consist of a fractured wrist and bruises on his legs and body.

Anderson was only slightly hurt.

Fitzpatrick, principal, Misses Augusta Miller and Mary Eagan.

DEATH OF RELATIVE

P. J. Bresnahan Goes to Kilbourn to Attend Brother's Funeral

DECIDE "NO CAUSE"

Jury Verdict Against Plaintiff In Action For Damages

A verdict of "no cause" was returned by a jury in circuit court Friday afternoon in the action of Felix Olesewski against Anton Szalawinski for $360 damages.

Mrs. Olesewski sued Szalawinski for the $360 and asked interest from January 11, 1919 for having cared for two children for one and one-half years. Szalawinski, in answer to Mrs. Olesewski's complaint, stated that he had contributed food for their support, given money for clothing and that the oldest child had worked in the Olesewski home in the city. He asked a dismissal of the complaint and for $354.

The jury: Fred Playman, Edith J. Baker, Mike Gosh, Felix Julga, Dell King, Elizabeth Coulthurst, Nels Hanson, Gustav Olson, Oscar Skoglund, Elizabeth Newby, Pearl A. Clements and Frank Raasch.

The case was actually tried with a jury of 11, because after the attorneys had made their opening statements, Mrs. Baker arose and begged to be excused from service, for she had found that she had had something to do with the case in the capacity of humane officer. She had not recognized it at first, she told the court. By agreement of the attorneys the jury of 11 heard the case.

HOME ECONOMICS INSTRUCTORS MEET

Teachers of Wisconsin River Valley Here on Saturday for a Conference

The Wisconsin river valley home economics club, composed of teachers of these schools in state, city and village schools, held an interesting and instructive meeting in this city last Saturday.

Sessions were held at the Normal school, commencing at 10:30 a. m., when representatives reported from Wausau, Marshfield, Wisconsin Rapids, Port Edwards, Stevens Point, Normal, High School and Vocational school. Besides an informal discussion of matters of mutual interest, valuable papers were presented by Miss Bessie M. Allen, the Normal supervisor, and by Miss Kittie Jensen of Wisconsin Rapids.

An exchange of dresses made by Sophie Jensen, of the local high school, called for much favorable comment. A 12 o'clock luncheon was served by the Normal home economics class, and it proved to be another enjoyable one of the gathering. Much new equipment has been added to the Normal building over by Miss Allen, an inspection of which was made by the visitors.

BRIGGS URGES SOY BEANS FOR CATTLE FEEDING

Big Loss Taken By Farmers Last Year Who Failed To Plant Enough

Portage county farmers last year paid out more than $100,000 for feed, according to Prof. George M. Briggs, field crop specialist of Madison, who spent last week with County Agent W. W. Clark on a campaign urging home grown feed and especially soy bean raising.

"If the farmers did not have to spend all of this money for feed they would have had it left to purchase other needed things for themselves and their families," Mr. Briggs declared. He said that last year the 25 northern counties expended more than three million dollars for roughage and dairy feed. This is a greater amount of money than the farmers actually paid out in taxes. "One of the best ways to prevent repetition of last year's disaster is to plant spring crops so that a sufficient amount of roughage will be available," the specialist pointed out.

Big Returns From Beans

Mr. Briggs recommends soils on all farms. He and County Agent Clark are urging Portage county farmers to plant big crops of soy beans for feed this year. "On this particular type of soil no crop will yield a greater return per acre than the one well known to many Portage county's best farmers, the soy bean crop," Mr. Briggs asserted. Continuing, he said: "Those farmers who are raising soy beans for hay and feeding them are finding that one mouthful of soy bean hay is equivalent to four mouthfuls of wild or timothy hay for cow feed. After knowing this, why should other farmers hesitate in planting a good acreage of soy beans for hay on their farms?"

"At the price of seed at the present time there is no excuse for any Portage county farmer having less than one-fourth of his farm planted to soy beans for feed and green manure. By planting rye in the soy bean stubble this coming fall, results next year will be double those from rye fields handled otherwise."

Meeting in Lanark

An interesting meeting of Lanark farmers was held at Hickey's hall in Lanark on Thursday evening. The farmers of that vicinity are planning to plant different varieties of soy beans in different ways to demonstrate their value for feed and soil improvement. C. W. Drake was chosen leader of the soy bean work there and is arranging for supplies of seed for the different cooperators in the demonstration work. Professor Briggs addressed the meeting on the value of soy beans and methods of handling the crop and County Agent Clark is assisting in planning the demonstrations. Another meeting is to be held in the summer to inspect the results secured on the different farms.

Kellner People Active

Messrs. Briggs and Clark also visited at Kellner, where the Kellner Soy Bean and Potato Growers' association is planning a soy bean booster meeting for the evening of Friday, May 19. It is probable that V. P. Atwell of this city and John Lukasewicz of the town of Plover will address the meeting.

Pleading guilty to twenty counts charging violation of the laws regarding the employment of women, George Pappas, Stevens Point, was ordered to pay forfeitures of $200 to the state of Wisconsin by Circuit Judge Byron B. Park in court Friday afternoon.

"The action, a civil matter, was brought by the state of Wisconsin against Pappas for the industrial commission. Pappas was charged with having paid wages under the minimum set by the state, with having had women under his employ work for a longer period than the law allows, and with having violated the rules regarding their employment at night, which with other charges, totalled 20 counts. ## 50 MEMORIAL TREES HONOR WAR'S HEROES

Elms of Uniform Diameter Secured at Wild Rose and Planted Along Road 18

Due to the efforts of the local American Legion auxiliary, a memorial has been erected nearby which for many years will recall the valor of Portage county soldier boys in the recent World war.

Along highway No. 18, commencing at the crossroads about half mile east of the Plover river bridge, have just been set out 50 elm trees of a uniform diameter of about three inches, and as arrangements have been made to keep the roots plentifully supplied with water during the coming several weeks, there is every reason to hope for their continued growth.

Shaurette's big truck was driven to the vicinity of Wild Rose last Wednesday week, under the direction of Mrs. C. G. Macnish and Mrs. Earl Wilson, the trees were dug and loaded and brought to their new location in the town of Hull that night.

On Thursday the replanting was done in record time under the direction of R. A. Cook and W. F. Parker by the following American Legion members: George Holman, Darwin Shumway, Benj. Gustacki, Judd Chenover and Frank Boyer, Jr.

The trees are set 50 feet apart, on both sides of the roadway, and have improved that locality to a great extent.

Summary: Home runs, Jordan and Burek. Three base hits, Jordan, Gustin. Two base hits, Jordan, Brennan. Sacrificed hit, Normoyle. Bases on balls, off Logan one, off Dompke seven. Struck out by Dompke, five, by Logan seven. Hit by pitcher, Jordan. Double plays: Ritchay, unassisted, Gustin to Puffall to Groh. Umpire, Nash.

Gathering ten safe bingles off the delivery of Dompke, Wisconsin Rapids pitcher, the Stevens Point baseball club opened the season for the Rapids nine at its park in Port Edwards on Sunday with a 15 to 5 victory.

Dompke's pitching was the weakest point in the Wisconsin Rapids lineup and the local ball players hit his offerings at will. Jordan, Point catcher, was the heavy artillery man, with three extra base slams, one a homer, one a triple and the other a two-bagger. "Bill" Gustin, a comparatively weak hitter last season, made as many hits as the bulky backstop, getting three safeties, one of which was a healthy triple over left field.

The battle was opened before a comparatively small crowd at 3:30. The first few innings were played in a cold, light drizzle of rain, after Mayor O. R. Roenius of Wisconsin Rapids threw out the first ball. Stevens Point was well represented in all sections of the field and the grandstand.

After the first inning it was apparent that unless the Wisconsin Rapids team could land on the throwing of Logan, the Point moundsman, there would be nothing to it for the Stevens Point boys. Puffall earned a walk. Normoyle sacrificed him to second and Groh was put out on a weak grounder to Ritchay. Catcher Jordan then waded up to the platter and soaked the ball into the woods back of left field and made the entire circuit. Wallace got a walk but succumbed on the sacks when "Pat" Snow fanned.

The Wisconsin Rapids boys in the first frame, although they got to Logan's hurling and poked a few out, wouldn't have had a man on first if "Heinie" Groh, whom the Rapids thought was the honest-to-goodness "Heinie" of National League fame, hadn't let a slow grounder by Ritchay go through his legs.

The Stevens Point ball players jumped on Dompke's stuff in the second and third frames while Wisconsin Rapids was being put out in one-two-three order. Logan struck out three in a row in the second and fanned two in the third.

Five in Fourth
The fourth was a bloody inning for the Point. Puffall, first up in that frame, flied to Ritchay. Then the locals, on three Wisconsin Rapids bobbles, a wild pitch, two hits and a cluster of stolen bases, proceeded to run around the circuit. Before the Rapids nine pulled itself out of the doldrums the Pointers had brought in five runs and had batted round. Puffall getting two chances with the Hickory.

With the score 9 to 0, after the close of the fourth frame, the Rapids came to bat. Logan grooved a few and with three hits and a walk, one of the hits being a two base sock by Brennan, three runs came over the Point platter. In the fifth Stevens Point added two more tallies on a walk and a triple, and Wisconsin Rapids put its final runs over the home base with two more hits and a bouquet of errors by the Stevens Point ball players.

Wallace's Catch
Stevens Point brought in two more runs in the eighth and one in the ninth, while Wisconsin Rapids was made satisfied with its five tallies. The only feature of the game after the fifth that brought a rise from the fans was a beautiful catch by Wallace in the seventh of Brennan's long fly to left. The ball went under a tree, Wallace chasing behind the big elm to arrive on the opposite side just in time to milt the ball.

The Wisconsin Rapids club played fair baseball for an opening game, considering the handicap it had in the hurler's box. Dompke is a Port Edwards youngster who may make good in semi-pro circles if he stays with the amateurs for a while. As it stands he hasn't the control nor the baseball head for a pro hurler.

Ritchay Rapids Best
Ritchay is Wisconsin Rapids' best bet. He played the third sack well, muffed up only one of his chances, and showed fairly good baseball headwork. His batting isn't of the best but he may improve.

Dudley, the Waupaca youngster given a chance with the Point in right field Sunday, made a good showing. He made a good catch of one long fly to his garden, poked up by Jesse. Tweed played half of the game in right, but nothing was hit his way. Wisconsin Rapids is coming here next Sunday. Rumors after the game said that the Tri-Cities were already planning on securing a new hurler and bolstering up the weak spots in their club.

CLOSE GAMES FEATURE LOCAL AMATEUR CARD

Auto Transfers Lose to Mosinee and Frosts Win from Kelley in Double Bill

Local baseball fans saw a double-header amateur baseball card at the fair grounds here Sunday afternoon that was an exhibition of first class playing.

The opening game, between the local Auto Transfers and the American Legion team, was won in the ninth inning when the Mosinee players, securing three hits and profiting by an error by Yach, the Transfers' third baseman, ran in the three winning tallies. The score was 5 to 2. The score had been tied, 2 and 2, up to the ninth. Adams hurled, for the Transfers and Winecki for Mosinee.

The Frost Fishing tackle team of Stevens Point won from a team from Kelley, near Wausau, by a score of 4 to 3. The game was a hot contest from start to finish, although played in a rain. Jakusz, the Frost pitcher, and Born, the Kelley hurler, threw almost even games, five hits being gleaned off the delivery of the visiting hurler and four off Jakusz.

G. L. A. Convention

Nine divisions of Wisconsin Grand International Auxiliaries to the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers were represented at the state convention held in Stevens Point Friday.

The meeting was called to order by the state president, Mrs. H. Lillie of Milwaukee. Mrs. Molliter, state vice-president, Mrs. T. E. Farringer, secretary of Milwaukee and Mrs. I. Ellison of Fond du Lac, state inspector, were also present. Mrs. Lillie was re-elected to the state presidency at the October state meeting in Antigo, and is a capable and dignified presiding officer. She dispatched the business of the order with tact and good judgment.

Her address follows in part: "This is a welcome opportunity to add another link to the golden chain of sisterly love which makes us willing members of our great and noble order. Our state meetings have been a success, far beyond our expectations and the cooperation shown insures growth and progress. We are encouraged by seeing our ritualistic work so beautifully done and by becoming acquainted with one another." Fidelity, love, harmony, protection, the principles forming the pillars of the order, were the theme of the latter part of her address and she closed by quoting the following:

"The earth is warmed by the kindly sun,
But lives are warmed by the deeds of men.

And their words of praise when our best we've done.

The poorest man on the earth is he who has bartered his friendship for selfish gain.

And seeks a welcoming smile in vain.

For the earth is warmed by the kindly sun
But lives are warmed by a higher plan

And he shall be glad when his work is done

Who has kept the faith with his fellowman."

Mrs. J. C. Davidson, president of the local division, succeeded Mrs. Lillie in the chair and gracefully conducted the honors accorded the bringing in of Grand Officer Mrs. Jennie Boomer, who was received with prolonged applause. Beautiful corsage bouquets of sweet peas were presented Mrs. Boomer, Mrs. Lillie and Mrs. Ellison.

Mrs. Klinker of Fond du Lac presided as her division conducted memorial form. Mrs. Arthur Haerel was initiated into the G. L. A. by the Fond du Lac division. Their work was praiseworthy and inspiring.

Mrs. Boomer's address was given at 3 p. m. She offered a tribute of praise to Mrs. Lillie, the women present heartily endorsing her remarks. She said that she had traveled through much of the country but no state had such beautiful roads and scenery as Wisconsin. She was asked to say something with reference to political affairs. Mrs. Boomer declared she was not a politician, because the G. L. A. kept her too busy looking after insurance. She did say, however, that she considered Robert M. La Follette one of the nation's greatest men. "He is the kind of man we want to keep in Washington. Wisconsin is also fortunate in its governor, Mr. Blaine," she asserted.

"Each for all and all for each" is the slogan for all fraternal orders. Our object is to make fraternal duties a pleasure," she continued. "Therefore we must follow as well as lead; we must learn as well as teach and must accept others' views as we ask to test our own. Universal brotherhood means the good we do by thought, word and deed. The G. L. A. is not merely a social organization its principles life us above pettiness."

Mrs. Boomer handled the question of G. L. A. insurance strictly from a business view point and showed a keen knowledge of it, which aroused enthusiasm and confidence. She acted as trustee of insurance for eight years before becoming general secretary and treasurer, an office she has held for 16 years. She has a charming and impressive presence and spoke with perfect ease.

A question box was conducted by Mrs. Ellison of Fond du Lac and Mrs. McNeil of Milwaukee. Mrs. Ellison, state inspector, assisted the Fond du Lac division in their beautiful ritualistic work. The Georgia division of Stevens Point was highly praised for the perfection of the various forms the women put on.

The officers of the local division and the committee having the arrangements in charge were given great credit for the unusual amount of work accomplished and with such ease and pleasure by the convention.

Club Year Near End

The annual business meeting and election of officers of the Woman's club was held at the Library club rooms Saturday afternoon and with the annual banquet to be held at the club rooms on the evening of May 27, the activities of the club will close for the summer months.

The past year stands out most clearly as a successful and progressive epoch in the club's history, under the presidency of Mrs. F. E. Walbridge, who has held that office most efficiently for the past two years, with the able assistance of Mrs. R. H. Rowe, first vice president, who presided during Mrs. Walbridge's absence of the past three months in California.

The club has broadened its scope of work during the past year by initiating a "cradle roll," an "intermediate roll" and a "sons and daughters auxiliary."

The influence of the visiting committee whose object is to keep in touch with "shut-ins" and members who are ill, has been most noticeable. Social committee groups, assigned to each calendar day, took charge of special entertainments for the social hour and refreshments were served only on special occasions.

The club went on record at Saturday's meeting as being most interested in the cause of better motion pictures and commended the stand taken by W. H. Hays, head of the newly organized motion picture producers and distributors, in having all showings and bookings of the Arbuckle films cancelled.

To represent the club at the national general federation of women's clubs to be held in Chautauque, N. Y., June 20-30, Mrs. M. D. Vinkle, Mrs. D. J. Leahy and Mrs. G. W. Whitely, were elected as delegates.

He banked his Money, He became a Partner.

Big business men are always on the lookout for young men who have the qualifications for big positions. The main thing they want to know is: "Does he MONEY SENSE?" That question can only be answered in one way: by a Pass Book showing REGULAR deposits. The routine of the business man can be taught, but the value of money he must learn for himself with his own money.

If you haven't yet started to regularly deposit some of your money, come in and open an account and start. You will be on the road to prosperity when you do.

We will welcome you.

FARM BOOSTER CLUB

FORMED AT ALMOND

Farmers Arrange to Have Potato Seed Treated for Entire Community

A meeting was held at Almond village recently to discuss the formation of a farm boosters' club, to be conducted as a community organization.

The meeting was called by a committee of farmers, and County Agent W. W. Clark addressed the meeting at the request of the committee. Farmers present discussed the treatment of seed potatoes and nearly every one present showed keen interest in this subject.

It was arranged at the close of the discussion to have Mr. Reader, an implement dealer at Almond, treat potato seed for the entire community at a fixed price per bushel. This will be done under supervision of County Agent Clark and experts from the College of Agriculture.

A second meeting has been called for Wednesday evening of this week to complete the organization. Its aim is to promote anything which will encourage and assist farming, and membership is open to anyone who is interested in the club.

SOY BEANS MAKE MARKET TOPPERS

Plover Farmer Sells Sheep Feed on Soy Bean Hay at Top Market Prices

That soy bean hay makes a great feed for fattening lambs, is the firm conviction of Arthur Clendenning, one of the progressive farmers living west of Plover. Last fall a bunch of sixty raised by him were fed soy bean hay as soon as they came off pasture, with the result that when ready for market Mr. Clendenning received the highest price paid for such stock.

"Soy bean hay saved me several hundred bushels of grain which I would have had to feed the lambs if I had not had the hay," said Mr. Clendenning. "Besides being cheaply fed, they were in fine condition when sold. Although I have good clover fields this spring I shall plant several acres of soy beans again this year because they gave me such good results last year."

The Manchurian bean is the one that has been grown the last two or three years on the Clendenning farm. Last year, grown in rows and cultivated, nearly three tons of hay per acre was secured. In making soy bean hay, beans were cut one morning, raked up early the next morning and then left to cure in racks.
